

Grady Smith : : associate pastor internationals ministries

Originally from Birmingham, Grady has been involved at Lakeview since his college years at Auburn. After graduating from Auburn University, he moved to Louisville to attend seminary. During his years there, he worked with The Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood and interned with Highview Baptist Church. Grady received his Master of Divinity degree in 2005 from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and is presently working on his Ph.D. from there in the field of missions, evangelism and church growth.

After returning to Auburn, Grady served at Lakeview first as a pastoral intern and then as an assistant in the Internationals Ministry and the coordinator of the Perspectives Missions Courses. Today he continues to serve at Lakeview as the Associate Pastor / Minister for Internationals where he oversees our local outreach to the International community in the Auburn and Opelika area.

Grady and his wife, Julia, were married in June of 2009 and had their first child, Grady Jeremiah, in November of 2010. More information is available on their personal web site at www.gradyandjulia.com.
