

Joanna Henderson : : youth girls director

Joanna is from Auburn, and was born to a Lakeview family and has been in attendance ever since. She graduated high school from Auburn High in 2008 and is currently enrolled at Auburn University studying Vocal Performance with a minor in Human Development and Family Studies.

Joanna joined Lakeview's staff in the fall of 2011. She has been gifted by God with a unique set of gifts that are a great eternal investment in the life of our Youth Ministry. Joanna is active in investing in the youth girls, equipping & encouraging our female workers, and investing in the overall life of the youth ministry.

She was recently engaged to Chris Call!