WEEK OF JUNE 14, 2021

pastor's PEN

Dear Lakeview Family,

This Sunday morning, June 20, Brian Payne will be preaching from the Lakeview pulpit for the first time as our pastor. My heart is filled with gratitude to the Lord for calling Brian to be our pastor. Personally, I am looking forward to sitting under his teaching. Let us welcome Brian and Heather, and their children (Ella, Nate, Seth, Ava and Seefen) not only with open arms but with our faithful prayers. "Give thanks to the Lord for he is good" (Psalm 136:1).

JESUS CHRIST: THE GLORY OF GOD REVEALED

On Sunday, June 27 and continuing through Sunday, August 8, Brian and I will be preaching a series of sermons on "Jesus Christ: The Glory of God Revealed." He will preach four times and I will preach three times. Pray for us as we prepare and preach on the greatest subject in the universe: The Lord Jesus Christ.

June 27	Jesus Christ: Supreme Over All Things Colossians 1:15-20	July 25	Jesus Christ: The Mystery of Godliness 1 Timothy 3:14-16
July 4	Jesus Christ: Fully God and Fully Man John 1:1-18	August 1	Jesus Christ: The Radiance of God's Glory Hebrews 1:1-4
July 11	Jesus Christ: Lord of Time and Eternity Philippians 2:5-11	August 8	Jesus Christ: Worthy of All Worship Revelation 5:1-14
July 18	Jesus Christ: Builder of the Church Matthew 16:13-19

SUMMER READING

As is my custom at the beginning of the summer, I once again encourage you to invest some time in serious reading which will edify your soul. This year I am suggesting two recent books and three Christian classics. In Letters to an American Christian, Bruce Ashford, who is a professor at Southeastern Baptist Seminary, addresses from a Christian worldview, issues of the relationship between Christianity and the hot-button political issues of our day, such as sexuality, race, political correctness, immigration and a host of other issues.

I highly recommend David Platt's latest book, Something Needs to Change. As you read this book, your heart will be stirred with a renewed passion to make your life count for the glory of God among all the nations.

PASTOR'S PEN CONTINUED

If you have never read Knowing God by J. I. Packer or Mere Christianity by C. S. Lewis or Pilgrim's Progress by John Bunyan, then you have missed out on growing your mind to think Christianly about God, the Christian faith and the Christian life. I hope you will choose one of these three classics to slowly and carefully digest this summer. Personally, I plan to re-read Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, which is the most widely read book in the English-speaking world other than the Bible.

For the Glory of King Jesus,
Al Jackson

BAPTISM COMMITTEE COUPLES NEEDED

The baptism committee is a great ministry and they are in need of some volunteers. If you are interested in serving on the baptism committee for two non-consecutive months of the year, please contact Laura Gray at lgray@lakeviewbaptist.org or call the church office for additional information. Volunteers assist the baptizing minister and the candidate for baptism in robing and redressing. Also, you would be responsible for laundering the robes and towels and returning them to the church.

congregational CARE UPDATE

BENEVOLENCE UPDATE

Through the benevolence fund, the Lakeview faith family continues to help many people caught in tough times. God Word says, "He who is generous to the needy honors His maker" (Proverbs 14:31). Our God has a tender heart toward those in need. Through your generosity we have helped with lodging, food, water and light bills, rental help, food pantry, grocery cards and even some gas expenses. With most, if not all, the gospel has been shared. Please know that the benevolence account is not in our budget. All the money given and the needs that are met are through your individual gifts to the benevolence fund. I continue to be amazed at your generosity. You can give by check or online designated for "benevolence." Thank you again. You are an amazing and generous family.

In the service of the easy yoke,
Tom
